UMFA Docent and Volunteer Newsletter

March Monthly Meeting

March 10, 12:00 to 2:30 pm

Beverly Taylor Sorenson Arts & Education Complex Auditorium (rm 1151). See below for a map.

UMFA curator Leslie Anderson-Perkins will present her plan for the reinstall of the European galleries.

Emily Izzo, our Kress Interpretive Fellow, will lead us in an interpretive activity she designed for the European galleries.

Luncheon will be provided by the Thursday Team.

The Results are In!

By a large majority, both 2016 proposals submitted to the Ann K. Stewart Volunteer and Docent Conservation Fund were accepted!

Congratulations to both Whitney and Leslie for the success of your hard work.

Welcome Christina!

Christina Jones joined us as our Tour Coordinator last month. She is a native of Twin Falls, Idaho and has lived in Salt Lake City since 2006. Christina is working towards two BFAs: Painting & Drawing and Art History. Her artistic background and focus on arts education has led her to a number of internship opportunities and community leadership roles, such as her current internship in the UMFA Director's Office. Christina is enjoying working with local elementary schools to schedule pARTners in-class presentations and she is very excited to be a part of the UMFA Team!

Third Saturday Needs Your Help!

ACME Lab

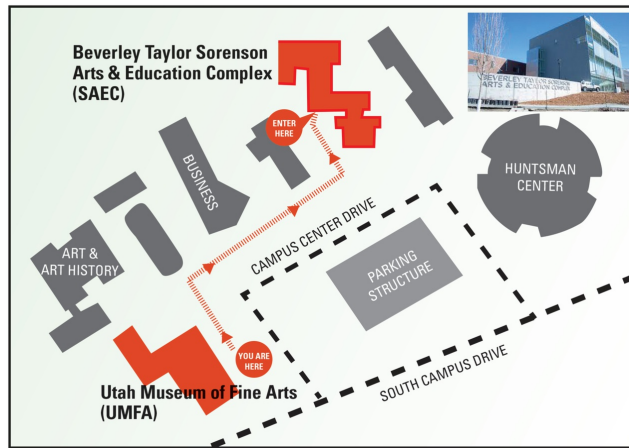

The UMFA is launching a new outreach initiative dedicated to rethinking the public role of museums. The ACME Sessions are a bimonthly series of roundtable public exchanges where participants can dream and articulate new models of education and community engagement through art. The series is presented in partnership with the Salt Lake City Public Library.

ACME Session I | Museums:

What Are They Good For?

March 9, 6:45 pm
